

Privacy statement - Privacy statement for www.rotterdamoverseas.net

Van Rotterdam Overseas Network hereafter referred to as RON, has created this privacy statement in order to demonstrate our commitment to protect the privacy of our users.

Personal Information

The registration form used for accessing the RON website and its interactive shipping applications requires for users to give us contact details such as (name, address and communication details). This information is being used to send information and promotional material to registered users about our company and new applications to be launched on our website.

The information or data registered via www.rotterdamoverseas.net are not made publicly available.

www.rotterdamoverseas.net has security measures in place to protect the user information registered in our systems. These measures include restricted access to databases containing user information, protected by digital certificates.

Except as set out below or as may be otherwise agreed, RON does not publish, share, trade, sell or otherwise disseminate any of the information or data registered or provided to us to any other party. RON may, however, be obligated and are entitled to disclose information and data registered or provided to us in compliance with applicable law, court or arbitration orders, judgements awards or other legal processes served or in compliance with requests by any entitled authority, body or person or to protect the interests, rights, property of RON, our users or others.

In addition, RON may disclose any information and/or data registered via www.rotterdamoverseas.net to and co-operate with authorities in any jurisdiction in relation to any direction or request to disclose such information and/or data regarding any user or the use of the website, content or services.

Should any information or data be transferred to a recipient based outside the EU/EEA, RON will ensure prior to such transfer that the recipient's level of data protection is sufficient.

During your use of our website we automatically collect IP addresses and other information concerning your use of our website in order to (i) help diagnose problems with our server, (ii) identify ways of making our site better, (iii) ensure that the website is used in accordance with relevant legislation and the applicable user terms, and (iv) for any processing which D&R is required to perform under applicable law, court or arbitration orders, judgements awards or other legal processes served or for the processing of information as set out above.

Cookies

A cookie is information that a web site puts on your hard disk so that it can remember something about you at a later time. (More technically, it is information for future use that is stored by the server on the client side of a client/server communication.) We use 'cookies' to generate digital certificates that identifies the user when logging on to our interactive shipping services. 'Cookies' are also used to control the correct display of the website navigation bar.
